Thoughtful Friday

Word of the week: Tolerance

In this picture the man doesn't know that there is a snake underneath. The woman doesn't know there is a stone pressing on the man.

The woman thinks: I am going to fall! I can't climb because the snake is going to bite me. Why can't he use a little more strength and pull me up?

The man thinks: I am in so much pain! Yet I am pulling as much as I can! Why doesn't she try and climb a bit harder?

The moral: We can't see the pressure others are under or the pain they are in. No matter whether it's school, work, family, or friends; we should try to understand each other, communicate better and above all be kind.

Let every light shine.
