Art
Year One
rear one
I can show how people feeling in paintings and
drawings.
I can create
moods in art work.
															-
I can use pencils to create lines of different thickness in
drawings.
I can name the primary and secondary
colours.
I can create a
repeating pattern															Ì
in print.
I can cut, roll and															Ì
coil materials.
I can use IT to															Ì
create a picture.
I can describe
what I can see															Ì
and give an opinion about
the work of an artist.	1	-
I can ask
questions about a piece of art.
piece of art.															i

Key: + = if extended beyond the basic skill.

/ = if achieved.

W = if working towards the criteria.