TIME FOR A BREAK

Topic - Japan

This week our focus is on Japanese Festivals.

Choose the activities you would most like to do, (or do some of your own) and present them creatively.

You can present your work however you like, for example, in the form of artwork, a film, a scrapbook, a PowerPoint or anything you think of!

Suggested activities for Festivals:

- Can you name some of the Festivals that are celebrated in Japan? Write a description of what the festival is about and why they celebrate it.
- Write a diary entry as though you were at one of the Japanese festivals. What did you do there? What did you see? Did you eat any traditional foods?
- Create your own calendar with the Festivals on it.
- Can you find out about the Kodomo No Hi festival? What date is it celebrated? Why is it special? Can you make your own Koinobori (windsock). This link could help you - Festival
- Research the festival of Hanami. Hanami means 'viewing flowers', but during this festival it generally refers to Cherry blossom.
- Haiku poems are written during the Hanami festival to celebrate the Cherry Blossom. Can you write a Hiaku poem about something you are thankful for?
- Hinamatsuri is the Japanese doll festival. Can you design a doll and an outfit for it?

There are many resources for these festivals on Twinkl.
