English – To write a feelings diary.

As we enter into another week of home learning I felt it may be helpful for you to start a feelings diary. You can reflect on what emotions you are feeling and why you think you are feeling that way.

If you are feeling frustrated can you think about strategies to help you feel less frustrated.

For example, If I am feeling frustrated I take some deep breaths and get some fresh air.

You may also like to add some goals to focus on.

I hope you enjoyed researching Japanese Festival. This week we are focussing on Japanese Art and Crafts.

Choose the activities you would most like to do, (or do some of your own) and present them creatively! You can present your work however you like, for example, in the form of artwork, a scrapbook, a PowerPoint.

Suggested activities for Japanese Culture. (Please feel free to do your own if you would prefer.)

- REMEMBER, you do not have to do all of these in a week, they are just ideas. Have fun.
 - Koi fish are beautiful fish that hold special symbolism in Japanese culture. Koi ponds are placed in beautiful, tranquil settings and Japanese gardens. Have a go at creating your own picture of a Koi card. Here is a link for an idea on how to use Salt painting.
