You have a non-uniform day

Monday 12th February!

What have we been up to?

Owls & Goslings

This week, we had a great time learning about Fire Engines and had a visit from the local fire team! We tried on the helmets (which were heavy!), sat in the fire engine and used the hose to put out pretend fires. We did lots of science experiments on SAW day, learning about fruit and vegetables. We've started our superhero theme by creating a superhero role play, making maps & masks for our superhero adventures.

Skylarks

This week we also did a SAW day where we learnt about tsunamis. We made a mini tsunami, wrote wave shape poems and painted wax resist waves. We then tried to make tsunamis in the pool at swimming the next day! We have also been busy writing a captain's log for our boat journey - Mrs. Buckley has been so impressed by the beautiful descriptive language used, well done Skylarks!

Kestrels

This week, we completed our SAW day on Fractals. The children learnt about all of the repeated patterns in nature and came up with fantastic, descriptive sentences to describe them including 'spiky, spiral staircases' and 'Kraken's teeth'. We also completed some Science experiments including one where we found out that pepper is hydrophobic. We then created some artwork based on the artist Jason Padgett who sees the world as fractals. Some of us sewed and some used spirograph.

Visit from the Fire Engine!
