

Cedar Class Newsletter –Summer 1 2025

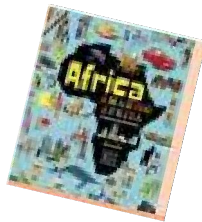

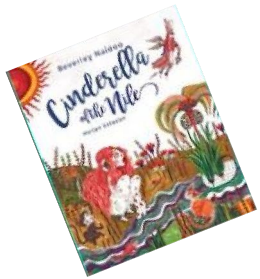

English

Writing Root book: Cinderella of the Nile

Literacy leaf book: Africa, Amazing Africa

Writing Outcomes:

Short news report, diary entry, character description, advert, own version of traditional tale

Maths

Shape

Turns and angles

Right angles

Comparing angles

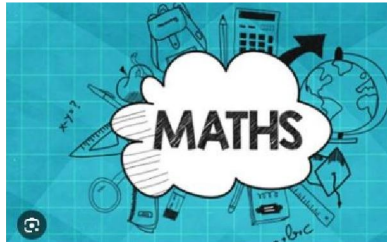

Drawing angles

Statistics

Interoperating pictograms

Drawing pictograms

bar charts

Science

Light and Sight

To know that light comes from a source

To know that must be light for us to see

To know that transparent materials let light travel through them

Our theme this term: Overcoming Adversity

Music –

To know that a composition is music created by you.

To know and talk about different ways of recording compositions.

PSHE/RSE –

Relationships

PE –

Tuesday: Invasion Games

Thursday – Field Games

Other Subjects

RE: What difference does being a Muslim make to daily life?

History: Ancient Egypt

Homework

Maths Homework

TT Rockstars – 3x 5 mins practise weekly

Reading

Children to read as often as possible with an adult. Once books have been read teachers to ask them to fill in a short

Spelling

Weekly spellings will be sent home.

Arithmetic test sent home to go over incorrect answers Family maths activity in homework book every 2 weeks.	book review- drawn, written or verbally given to ensure it has been read before changed.	These are given out each Tuesday and tested the following Tuesday. Grammar and Punctuation Task sent home every 2 weeks in blue homework book. Half termly homework For Summer 2 Homework we will be focusing on History. I would like the children to create a piece of work around the Great Fire of London explaining when it happened, how it was caused etc. This can be done by hand or on the computer whichever is preferred. This will be due the last week of term.
--	---	--