Arithmetic test sent home to go over incorrect answers

Family maths activity in homework book every 2 weeks.

Children read as often as possible with an adult. Once books have been read and it's written in yellow diary, children may change their book.

Spelling rule with example spellings sent out every Tuesday and tested the following Tuesday.

Spelling seed sent out every Wednesday and tested the following.

Grammar and Punctuation

Task sent home every 2 weeks in a blue homework book.

Half termly homework

For Spring 1 Homework we will be focusing on Science. I would like the children to pick an animal and create a piece of artwork of the chosen animal in their habitat. As an extra challenge add a description of the habitat using some exciting adjectives!
